

Test Your Knowledge

Test your knowledge of Accessible Travel by answering the following questions.

Check your answers in the Answer Key below.

True/False

1. In the United States, it is estimated that 54 to 60 million people, about 20 percent of the total population, have some type of disability.
A. True
B. False
2. American Sign Language (ASL) is a universal sign language and does not differ from country to country
A. True
B. False
3. Hearing impairment is the least common type of disability.
A. True
B. False
4. Always speak to the person with the disability, not to his or her companion.
A. True
B. False
5. Some hotels that are located on beaches, offer Beach Wheelchairs with big balloon-like tires that enable it to roll in the sand.
A. True
B. False

Answer Key
1. A. True; 2. B. False; 3. B. False; 4. A. True; 5. A. True